We reside in tomorrow.

Everything we do today, is about arriving at a tomorrow.

This is particularly true for the pharmaceutical space. Because the tomorrow in this business space is not 5 days later or 5 months hence. It is about 5 years into the horizon - whether be it for setting up and commercialising a facility or developing and launching a new product or introducing some new technology or even for entering a new market.

lt's an arduous journey that tests patience and perseverance in equal measure. Patience to navigate obstacles while trusting the process. Perseverance in doing what needs to be done for as long as it takes.

At Alembic, ours was no different. Having held on to our vision and trusted our process for more than half a decade, we have inched closer to our envisioned tomorrow.

This Annual Report is a brief narration of this exhilarating journey.

...our front-end marketing of a large and diversified basket comprising 100+ products and 300+ different SKUs.

Our journey in the US market exemplifies immeasurable patience and unflinching perseverance because we remained singularly focused on long-term sustainability as opposed to short-term success.

The question is... Why is the US market so important to the pharmaceutical world? A simple answer. It provides opportunities like no other.

The US market is the world's largest pharmaceutical market which continues to grow yearon-year owing to an ageing population, improving healthcare facilities and favourable government policies. Being one of the most stringent in the world, a presence in this market amplifies the reputation of any pharma player.

The US market is considered as the gateway to the global pharmaceutical world. If an enterprise gains a toehold in the US, it definitely will establish a strong foothold in numerous other large and growing pharma markets globally. But the US market is quite difficult to enter and even more daunting to grow.

- 1) It mandates niche products.
- 2) It decrees 24x7x365 monitoring of prospects to cherry-pick opportunities with relatively lesser competition.
- 3) It entails making the product cost-effective to be able to withstand immense competitive pressures.
- It requires operating infrastructure and systems and processes to match their stringent standards.
- 5) And last but not the least, you need to sustain this each day.

Easier said than done. Because a single slip could push the enterprise back for months, if not years.

At Alembic, we nurtured the dream of establishing a strong presence in the US market in 2015. We pivoted our presence on a single philosophy 'Commitment to Deliver'. This is owing to an important reality that in the US market timely delivery of products to the customer (also known as filling rate) is a critical parameter to securing business and sustaining relations.

This simple approach re-defined the contours of our business. It meant operating in India with a US mindset. It meant realigning our systems and processes. It meant training our people – technically and behaviourally. It meant having a Plan A, Plan B, .... Plan Z... to ensure that deliveries reached on time. Always!

Additionally, we institutionalised practices that were lateral by design because the US market is such.

1) We cherry-picked to work with customers with a long-term intent and purpose.

This helped us service them better. Our planning, manufacturing and supply chain teams became more aligned to customer timelines. Our India and US teams worked closely – following schedules meticulously, by the day. Our filling rates bettered every month. Our customers' reliability on our commitment scaled higher. Steadily our volumes with customers upped.

In the last three years, we sustained a filling rate between 97-98%.

2) We told customers 'NO'.

Customers added up fast. We had to tell some customers 'No'. Because our back end (manufacturing & supply chain) was full. And even when they had a small window of 3-6 months, we politely refused prospective customers. This was a painful strategic stand, at a time when growing business was so essential. Interestingly, we realised customers appreciated an Honest No; their trust in Alembic grew. They realised that they were in good hands. They lined up first at the next opportunity.

3) We built our product portfolio and capacity.

Customers asked for products across more volume and therapies. On the one hand, our R&D teams worked round-the-clock to create the pipeline - product and filing. On the other hand, our projects team burnt the midnight oil to execute our ₹3,000+ crore capex plan over the last five years. The Alembic team remained charged. The brilliantly curated playground created by our front-end team over the initial 2-3 years helped launch products at a steady pace. Our product basket grew. Our volumes increased. Our ANDA pipeline swelled.

ANDA filed

Today, we may not be a large company in the US market. Yet, we are high performing mid-tier company with the firm belief that for us... the sky is the limit!

Supply and service level during the pandemic

When most others slipped owing to supplychain disruptions

> 13% 5-Year Revenue CAGR

It's one thing to swim with the tide...

It's quite the other to go against it.

Our India business was one of dogged resolve as it aimed to unshackle our domestic generics piece from the traditional practices.

What necessitated this change? Simply because we realised that we had whatever it took to be among the top few, but we were not there. We were growing. But not at the pace we would have been happy about.

Legacy practices maybe? They continued to work for our peers. But not for us. We had the option of tweaking somethings. Or, we could change the paradigm.

If we narrowed in on the latter, we could lose people, customers, relationships, business and our peace of mind. And instead of scaling northward, we could slip in the pecking order, when compared with peers. In effect ... the entire exercise could have backfired. But we went for the latter. Because

It was about infusing the new.

It was about shaking off complacency.

It was a manifest of our belief that we could make it to the top.

It was a gut feel that we were doing what was right.

It was something that could sustain our growth over the medium-term.

At Alembic, we started these exercises over last 5 years. And this is what we did.

1) We prioritised energy over experience.

In the domestic pharmaceutical industry, the field force, better known as Medical Representatives (MRs), create product awareness with the prescribing community. Pharmaceutical companies prefer to onboard MRs with experience as they are to pick up the threads almost instantly. For the Company, it means no revenue loss.

At Alembic, we infused fresh blood into our field force. Graduates out of college. They had no baggage of do's and don'ts. They were aspirational. They were rearing to make a mark. It was tough. We provided extensive training on the sector, the trade and Company's policies and business practices. In the process, we lost some MRs. But we persisted with this change.

Today, 66% of our field force is young (Under 30). They are delivering!

2) We focused on increasing our customer base.

For a pharmaceutical company, the immediate customer is the doctor. Every Company makes a beeline for the better-known doctors. As a result, there is significant clutter at the top end of the medical fraternity. Moreover, as competitive intensity increases with every passing year, prescriptions per product decline. To sustain relations and volumes, the promotional costs continue to move northward.

At Alembic, we drew out a differentiated strategy. We built relationships with a wider gamut of doctors across the pecking order. We put in significantly more efforts to identify and reach out to our customers across a much wider geographic area. We built relations primarily on a knowledge platform. It pained as volumes and relations ebbed in initial years. Today, we are better off on both counts.

We have a connect with ~2.22 lac doctors in FY22 against ~1.55 lac doctors in FY16.

3) We throttled supplies.

Maintaining a large finished goods inventory with stockists leads to operational sluggishness. MRs felt pressured to liquidate stocks which only accelerated their attrition.

At Alembic, we undertook a detailed study of inventory management (finished goods) across our distribution channel. We made considerable improvement in our systems and process at our factories for product dispatches. We created awareness among our stockist on the benefits of maintaining lower inventory. We throttled supplies. Two things happened. For our products, supply-push graduated into a demand-pull. Our MR attrition declined.

The result

The entire sales team has improved tremendously. This complemented with a more evolved approach on how we engage with customer relationships, enabled us to increase the quantity of customers we could engage with a more robust quality of engagement with customers. Every segment has seen a strong growth for us, including the ones that are even very tiny for us.

In FY22, our business grew at 29%, topped the industry growth at 18%.

Numbers that matter

Brands worth ₹50 crore in FY22

This number was at 4 in FY16 Making the world your marketplace

This is especially true for the pharmaceutical sector. Because every nation has its unique needs, policies, climatic conditions, cultures and lifestyles. Hence ailments and medical requirements are largely distinct.

As such, every nation mandate diverse regulatory compliance, which have become increasingly stringent with each passing year. Some markets have become even more stringent than the US.

Add to this, every nation has different marketing models.

The bigger challenge lies in presence. Because each nation individually, is a relatively small market; the Return on Resource does not justify focusing on one nation alone. You have to be present in a few of them to make the effort viable and visible. What makes the global market increasingly tricky is the accurate and timely mapping of every nation's requirement, with the Company's product basket and prevailing regulatory environment. Because after the right fit is identified, regulatory filings have to be done with speed to ride the opportunity wave. This gets you in the market.

Sustaining supplies and growing the presence is quite a different ball game. Because, in every nation, everything can and does change. And you are supposed to know, plan and prepare before the change transpires.

At Alembic, like most others, the Rest of the World (RoW) market was largely 'a good to be in' space as it provided additional revenue. But then it was not consistent.

And we needed something consistent – it was a prudent derisking strategy against aggressive price erosion, fall in demand, regulatory challenges, policy changes et all.

We decided to course correct. We graduated this business segment into an essential flanking vertical that accelerated growth in good times and emerged as a cushion to the organisation in the unfortunate trend reversal.

This meant making a very concerted effort to establish a footprint in important growth markets in the world. This is what we did.

1) We made our presence in Europe stable

In Europe, pharmaceutical companies generally target the bigger nations. For obvious reasons. But the operating model is – tenders. If you get the tender, you make it big, and visa-versa. The other smaller nations had their own operational challenges – deterring big pharma players from entering the space.

At Alembic, we went the same way initially. But our altered outlook forced us to tread a path that promised stable and predictable revenue. Over the last four years, we made inroads into the smaller marketplace. Built relations with the distributors in those geographies. Invested in associations and infrastructure which was necessary from a regulatory perspective. Worked persistently on building the Alembic reputation.

Currently, we are present in 20+ nations in Europe.

2) We established a strong presence in Australia

From multiple product distributors, this market consolidated to a few, who control almost the entire market. This required a complete change in the way of working. New relations needed to be nurtured. Systems and processes had to be tweaked. Supply chain needed to be altered.

At Alembic, we worked on all counts simultaneously. We established relations with all the leading product distributors. For some products, we enjoy tie-ups with all of them. With most others we have tie-up that allows us to enjoy substantial share in that market. We expanded our product offering in each of the last three years. This persistent effort enabled us to be present in the entire generic market in this continentnation.

We currently have 23 product dossiers (commercialised/under review) in this nation.

3) We saw the first rays of the sun in South Africa.

At Alembic, our initial success spurred us to expand our footprint further into the large and demanding South African market.

We initiated our efforts in South Africa before 2014. Over the last few years, we continued product filings despite not making much headway. In this year, the environment changed for the better. Sales volumes jumped. We expect this trend to continue over the next few years.

Currently, we have 23 product dossiers (commercialized/under review) in this territory.

4) We set our eyes on other markets too.

Having created a robust platform, we are now working on making the big leap. We are working on establishing a strong foothold among Latin American nations. We have and are actively filing product dossiers for regulatory approval. In addition, we are working actively in South-East Asia, where we are aggressively filing for product registration; for some products we have received the stamp of approval. Others should follow suit shortly. We have already reached a critical mass. As our efforts see fruition, we should witness this vertical to emerge as an essential and sustainable growth driver for the Company.

Statement from the Chairman's desk

"Our journey has been heartening so far. I am looking forward to an even more exciting time in the years to come."

Dear Shareholders

I consider myself extremely fortunate to be part of a business space that plays a pivotal role in improving health across the globe through its affordable and highquality generic medicines, no matter what. The multiple waves of the pandemic that swept across the world, further enhanced the capability and credibility of our business space.

The Indian pharmaceutical sector displayed commendable grit and determination in working overtime to overcome the significantly lethal second wave that caused a debilitating impact on lives and livelihood of Indians. Moreover, India helped millions across the globe by sending its medicines to more than 100 nations.

This happened because the Indian pharmaceutical sector braved all odds to ensure that medication was always close at hand. Alembic was a part of this coveted group. Our teams pulled out all stops to ensure that our medicines reached, where they were required, on time. For this daunting effort, I express my whole-hearted gratitude to the entire Alembic team. It is owing to their patient perseverance and unwavering dedication that the Company's respect among global and India peers has scaled a few notches higher.

Going forward

The world is looking up to India to take its rightful position as the 'Medicine Box of the World'. But for that to happen, India would need to make the conscientious climb up the value chain and build capabilities in new-age opportunities.

If the Indian pharmaceutical sector aims to rank among the Top 5 nations in global pecking order and attain the podium position in volume terms, it will need to grow from about US$44 billion currently to US$120-130 billion by 2030 and US$500 billion by 2047. The Government is doing its part in creating an enabling ecosystem for the pharmaceutical sector. It recently introduced two PLI schemes which has generated considerable interest. More recently, in the Union Budget 2022, the Government has announced important confidence-enhancing measures and allocations which promise to provide significant impetus to the Indian Pharmaceutical sector.

But a lot more needs to be done with speed. For India to climb the global pecking order, some important areas have come under its radar:

- India will need to generate adequate skilled human capital by upgrading the curriculum of pharmaceutical studies to meet industry prerequisites.
- 2) India will need to nurture and drive innovative capabilities into commercial success. And this can happen when it is able to integrate all stakeholders of the pharmaceutical and healthcare industry to push the industry to greater heights.
- 3) The Indian pharmaceutical sector will need to absorb and deploy prevalent and relevant technologies such as AI, Big Data, Machine Learning, IoT and analytics. This, I believe, will help accelerate the pharma industry's vision of 'Make and Discover in India'.

At Alembic, we are firmly focused on making our operations digital. For this, we have drawn the contours of a digital blueprint which will be implemented in a phased manner. We have reworked some bits of our R&D strategy to ensure that every rupee is judiciously invested in the right areas. This will allow us to maximise the bang from every buck. Moreover, with most of our capacity build-up in place, we hope to maximise returns from our investment in the years to come. This liquidity will then be deployed to fuel our strategic initiatives which are aligned to sectoral demands.

Our journey has been heartening so far. I am looking forward to an even more exciting time in coming years. My aspiration is to build a robust institution that generates pride in the minds of our stakeholders. I would love to come back and report to you about our growth story in a year's time.

Warm regards,

Chirayu Amin

Chairman & CEO

From the Leadership team

"We assure our shareholders that we will work singularly to ensure that Alembic remains always relevant and current to the people we serve and to the changes taking place in our environment."

We look forward to this time of the year when we get to comprehensively communicate with our shareholders about our business, its performance and prospects.

Our business: performance and prospects

Our consolidated financial numbers for FY22 dropped compared with the previous year. The reality though is that they are incomparable because the previous year was exceptionally good on all counts. We were also mindful that these tailwinds which allowed us to soar in FY21 would not continue, and had adequately and accurately communicated this to our shareholders.

A deeper analysis reveals that if we exclude the positive exceptions of the previous year, our business verticals registered a healthy uptick. This is particularly satisfying because it showcases that outcome of our patience and perseverance is strengthening our growth levers. And these very engines, we are confident, will continue to drive our performance northward.

Now, allow us to take you through the performance, prospects and strategies of our business verticals, which will provide an insight into where the Company is and where it is heading.

The US business: Our US business, over the last three years (upto FY21), was particularly phenomenal in terms of the pricing and the opportunities we enjoyed in this market. Our robust and agile supply chain allowed us to effectively capitalise upon numerous high price opportunities due to disruptions in the market. The correction had to happen, and it did in FY22. The steep price erosion since the start of FY22 impacted the business adversely. Business performance got further dented owing to the fact that with effect from September 1 2020, the Government partially withdrew export incentives for the pharma sector. The combination of these factors hit our performance. While this was expected, the good times lasted longer than expected. So, we are happy about that.

The performance in FY22, we believe, is the new base. We will grow on this by launching new product and capturing new opportunities. We will continue to file about 25 ANDAs annually, even as we launch about 15 new products (which will include injectables, ophthalmic, and other products) into this market every year. This will cushion us against the normal price erosion in the US market and help us accelerate business momentum as we move forward.

Coming to our new facilities. Our F2 oral solids unit is already approved. Products which we have cherrypicked for this unit are under patent currently – their expiries are some years later. We wish to lock in the Para-IV advantage that will help to improve our returns from products and respect in the market. Our F2 injectable unit has filed 15 ANDA (4 injectable and 11 Oral Solids) which should also trigger an inspection by the USFDA.

For our F3 injectable unit we experienced a setback. After receiving the EIR, the USFDA came for a physical re-inspection. They concluded the inspection with 10 observations, none of which were related to data integrity. It will push us back by some months hopefully as we implement comprehensive remediation measures. It's a new area for us, it's a learning curve and we are very confident that we will get through this in the next fiscal. Moreover, we will also gain insights into implementing this learning in our other plants to make our systems and process more resilient.

While the team is leaving no stone unturned to undertake the necessary remediation measures, our R&D team has utilised the time well. We filed 15 ANDAs for injectable products from this unit. Moreover, we utilised the facility for taking exhibit batches for many interesting products for which we expect to file ANDAs in FY23. This will create large and diverse, ready for launch product pipeline once we receive the stamp of approval from the USFDA authorities.

Additionally, we aggressively pursued cost optimisation initiatives, supply chain volume growth, picking up business, bidding for new businesses, rationalising some R&D spend and other expenses. This will be an ongoing journey moving forward.

We focused on strengthening our presence in the dermatology segment in the US market. With this objective we acquired the 40% stake of Aleor Dermaceuticals Limited (Aleor) held by Orbicular Pharmaceutical Technologies Private Limited (Orbicular). Consequent to this strategic investment. Aleor became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Now we have complete control of strategy, operations and marketing of entire dermaceutical portfolio resulting in much needed efficiencies and improvement in overall business outlook. We undertook a threadbare review of Aleor's intangible assets and expensed out an additional ₹188 crore in the current year. This initiative will go a long way, in growing our US business vertical in the medium-term.

We believe, that despite the ups and downs, the US market continues to be a very interesting market. We remain bullish on our prospects in this market. We look forward to launching new products as well as picking up share in existing products. And if there are disruptions, which I think will always come up from time to time, we will strengthen our preparedness to ride the wave.

The Rest of the World (RoW)

piece: Over the years, we have developed this vertical into a very solid contributor to business growth. More importantly, it cushions any drop in the performance of our US business, which became very evident in FY22.

During the year under review, we managed to match the FY21 topline, which we believe was a very good achievement considering the reality that the previous year base was already very high (57% higher over the FY20 topline). We were able to achieve this owing to increased volumes from existing geographies and an expanded footprint in new geographies.

The domestic branded business:

This business grew pretty much in line with our expectations with robust contributions from all our key therapy areas, along with all the key product segments. This has been the hallmark of our FY22 performance.

In the women's healthcare segment, we have taken a position to look at developing this market. Our patience and perseverance over the years in growing our presence in this space has yielded healthy returns. In FY22, we registered tremendous growth in the women healthcare portfolio. We expect to sustain the momentum over the mediumterm.

In addition, we are looking at diabetes as a long-term focus for the organization. Considering the sheer product markets and our new product-launch availability, we are trying to pivot ourselves for aggressive growth in this space. We received decent traction in the first year, and we hope to consolidate on this platform going forward.

Also, in the rest of our specialty businesses, we experienced significant movement in the portfolio to migrate towards high growth parts of these specialty portfolios. This is an ongoing task over the last few years. We have made significant progress in FY22 towards our goal. We expect these business spaces to give us a far more robust topline growth in the coming years.

Additionally, in the domestic business, we see abundant pockets of growth across our portfolios in acute, veterinary spaces. As a result, we are quite positive about this business going forward. Along with this, the continued optimism about the overall IPM growth, which we have been experiencing for a few quarters now, hopefully should add further momentum to our growth.

To capitalise on these attractive opportunities, we are working on multiple operational levers. Also, along with that there is significant scope to resource this business adequately. Additionally, we plan to deploy cutting-edge technology to improve our operational efficiency, technology in and around data analytics to speed things up, technology to gamify our sales and everything around with the objective of motivating them to move up the performance barometer. We will endeavour to further tighten system and control with the objective of maximising resource utilisation. In a nutshell, we will get leaner to become more agile – our team's energy will be our key driving force. And, as long as the market performs, we are confident of outperforming the market on a sustainable basis.

The API business: The business reported a degrowth but we are not perturbed. Because it was pitted against the high base of FY21 (owing to Azithromycin used for COVID treatment). If you take that part out, then the rest of the portfolio grew at a healthy pace. We have made important investments in this business during the year under review, which promises to improve product quality and man-machine efficiency and hence our growth prospects.

In closing, we assure our shareholders that we will work singularly to ensure that Alembic remains always relevant and current to the people we serve and to the changes taking place in our environment. To that end, we continually shape the Company, strategically choosing the businesses in which we compete, the areas of research in which we invest, and the geographies in which we build, to achieve the optimal configuration for success.

We look forward to a great FY23, where we will take Alembic a few notches higher.

Best regards,

Pranav Amin and Shaunak Amin

Few questions... answered

Q. The question is around the US business model itself. It appears that the Company makes good profit only when there is some sort of a structural issue or first day filing. So in a normal way, the US market doesn't allow the Company to make good profits.

A. The US market for us, has been profitable since inception. The market is attractive and for good reasons: 1) The addressable market size is very good, 2) It is relatively easier to establish and grow your own frontend in the market

3) There are structural opportunities that continue to surface which boost business profitability, and 4) It opens the doors to other markets across the world. These factors push us to sustain our investments for this market.

Q. About the Aleor JV. It has not scaled up. What is your thought on the same?

A. The competitive pressure in the derma space has increased significantly as in all other businesses. Our edge lies in the reality that Aleor is a low cost operation. Having said that, we have also done some cost rationalisation at Aleor as well. It's just a matter of getting more products into the facility and sweating the assets more. This should happen in the due course as our filings in the derma space are increasingly at a healthy pace.

Management Discussion & Analysis

1) The economic environment

Global economy: The world continued to tread the recovery path, but the momentum of recovery remained constrained owing to the pandemic and uncertainties surrounding this global health scare.

Fuelled by the highly transmissible and increasingly lethal Delta variant, the death toll across the globe touched the 5-mn mark owing to the pandemic. Moreover, the accompanying fear, lockdowns and supply chain disruptions held back a full return to normalcy. Overall, risks to economic prospects increased, and policy trade-offs became more complex. As a result, the global growth projection for 2021 is pegged at 5.9%; estimates for 2022 are set at 4.9%.

There appears to be considerable economic divergences between advanced and developing economies. Aggregate output for the advanced economy group is expected to regain its pre-pandemic trend path in 2022 and exceed it in 2024. In contrast, aggregate output for the emerging market and developing economy group (excluding China) is expected to remain below the pre-pandemic forecast till 2024, resulting in a larger setback to improvements in their living standards.

But these estimates could change significantly owing to the geopolitical tensions prevailing in the world and the crippling sanctions which will have a considerable impact on commodity prices; the fragilities of the global supply chain will get even more exposed.

> 5.9% Global GDP growth

Indian economy: A resilient India bounced back with considerable vigour. Coming out from severe second wave which was extremely intense, the Indian economy demonstrated remarkable progress.

The first advance estimate of gross domestic product (GDP) for the financial year 2021-22 (FY22) came at 8.9% as compared to the contraction of 6.6% in 2020-21. As per the initial estimates India's GDP in actual terms in 2021-22 will surpass the pre-Covid level of ₹145.69 lakh crore in 2019-20.

Several high frequency indicators have reached pre-Covid levels. Even the contact intensive and mobility dependent sectors like hospitality, aviation and tourism bounced back sharply from the second wave

India better than the best

Consumer price inflation in the US is at 8.5%, a 40-year high. In the Euro area, it is 7.5%. These are economies that are used to inflation averaging less than 2%. India's consumer price inflation is moderate at fractionally under 7%.

The rupee has been one of the more stable currencies, dropping against the dollar by just 1.4% in the last 12 months. Other than the yuan, the only currencies to have gained against the dollar belong to oil exporters: Brazil, Indonesia, and Mexico.

Changes in the historical and projected global medicine spending model due to Covid-19, 2019–2026 (US$ Bn)

Source: IQVIA Market Prognosis, Sep 2021; IQVIA Institute, Nov 2021

2) Mega trends in the pharmaceutical space

Global pharmaceutical space

The global medicine market – using invoice price levels – is expected to grow at 3–6% CAGR through 2026, reaching about US$1.8 trillion in total market size.

The largest driver of medicine spending through the next five years is expected to be global COVID-19 vaccinations. Growth in global medicine spending will be slowed by losses of exclusivity, resulting in brand losses of $188 billion, mostly offset by spending on newly launched products.

In developed markets, the use of medicines has remained consistent over the past decade, with most of the medicine use continuing to be in older and traditional therapies. Newer specialty therapies in oncology are driving a growth of 13.8% CAGR in onco-supportive drugs and 4.6% CAGR in oncology in recent years.

Medicine use in pharmerging markets has grown in all major therapy areas over the past decade. Older therapies in cardiovascular disease and dermatology account for 20% of current medicine use, with share of usage in dermatology growing 34% over the last 10 years. The US market, on a net price basis, is forecast to grow 0-3% CAGR over the next five years, down from 3.5% CAGR for the past five years. Spending in Europe is expected to increase by $51 billion through 2026, with a focus on generics and biosimilars.

Indian pharmaceutical space

The pharma industry has seen a sharp rise in the past three years with rapid digitisation. Moreover, advanced research in the field has created newer avenues of treatment for mankind. The pharmaceutical industry is expected to grow to US$ 1.5 trillion by 2023. The technological trends expected to play out are:

Rise in E-pharmacies: The Covid-19 pandemic has forced people to buying medicines online from the earlier brick-andmortar pharmacies. With the rise in popularity, it is expected that the growth of e-pharmacies will continue strongly, and the overall number of households served is set to cross the 70 million mark by 2025.

Clinical trials: Digitisation is expected to change the future of clinical trials in the years to come. From matching trials to patients by analysing their health records to improving medication adherence, trials will become more global and remotely-led. In the near future, new technologies like digital pills will increase the accuracy of monitoring and reporting. Artificial Intelligence: Al can present a myriad of opportunities for the pharmaceutical industry bringing about a radical shift in the innovation paradigm of the pharma sector. Pharmaceutical companies are leveraging advanced ML algorithms and Al-powered tools to streamline the drug discovery process, create more affordable drugs and therapies, and reduce operational costs. Pharma companies can also implement Al in the manufacturing process for higher productivity, improved efficiency.

Precision medicine: The production of precision medication requires facilities that are specialised and smaller than most factories. Even though it has posed problems for pharmaceutical manufacturers, this is a trend that's anticipated to continue as methods used are refined.

> In FY22, the pharmaceutical industry recorded a growth of 9-11% which was mainly driven by a push from emerging and domestic markets.

3) Business Performance

International Formulations

This division represents Alembic's global footprint which comprises all key regulated markets and a host of pharmerging markets, both of which are essential for the Company's sustained success in the pharmaceuticals space.

To maximise business growth from the international business, the Company has created two teams

- The US front end team which focuses on strengthening the brand recall of the Company as a committed and reliable pharmaceutical player with an unblemished USFDA track record.
- The Rest of the World (RoW), which concentrates its energies on widening the Alembic footprint in other regulated and pharmerging markets.

Patient perseverance over the last decade, has allowed Alembic to establish a strong presence in these high potential markets. During the last five years, the Company invested considerable resources in new therapies and delivery platforms namely Dermatology, Ophthalmology, Oncology, and Injectable Formulations. The resultant expansion in product portfolio holds promise of accelerating the Company's growth momentum from these verticals over the coming years.

b) Rest of the World (RoW)

From being a fledgeling a few years ago, Alembic has put in considerable effort in graduating this vertical as an important flanking business that ably supports overall business growth. Over the years, the Company has achieved an active presence in 6+ geographies, which includes regulated and pharmerging destinations.

Despite the supply-chain challenges across the globe owing to the pandemic, the team successfully matched its FY21 performance. This was a very heartening achievement considering the extraordinary jump in topline registered by the team in FY21.

The highlight of the fiscal was the registrations it received in South Africa and in some Latin American countries. The team also made good headway in the South-East Asian countries – it made quite some filings, which should transform into commercial volumes in the next 18-24 months.

The team continued to consolidate its presence in existing markets with considerable success as it forged new alliances for its existing products.

a) The US piece

A journey that commenced in 2015, is currently an important business driver for Alembic and contributed about 31% to its topline in FY22. The Company's front-end office in New Jersey, US forges and nurtures relationships with leading distribution and marketing companies.

This business posted decent numbers considering that it came from high base of previous year (on account of high price realisations on Sartans Business). This was possible on account of new product launches and consolidating market share in existing products.

The Company's ranking in the US market improved considerably – in FY 21 the Company featured among the Top 5 players for 47 products; in FY 22, the Alembic brand upped into the Top 5 for 62 products. The R&D team sustained its efforts in filling the product pipeline which will expand the Company's product portfolio over the coming years.

FY22: Key highlights

- Launched 13 new products in the US
- Filed 23 ANDAs in the US
- Received approval for 23 ANDAs (Including Tentative Approvals)

Domestic Branded Generics

This is an important business vertical as this single geography contributes significant share to the Company's topline and bottomline. Alembic manufactures specialty formulations which cater to diverse chronic and acute therapies. The 5,500+ Field Force caters to around 2,25,000 doctors in India. The Company enjoys a 1.51% market share in India. (Source: IQVIA MAT MAR 22)

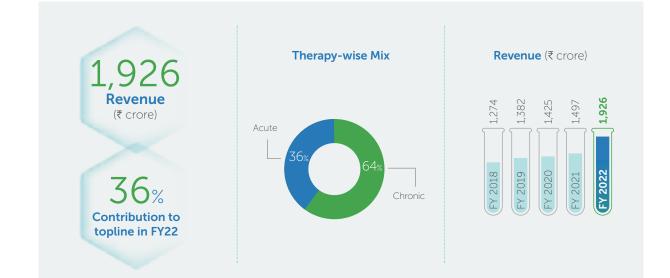

The Company gained significant traction during the multiple waves of the pandemic owing to its product Azithral, which featured in every Covid-19 remedying prescription. Also, its Amphotericin product against Black Fungus (a probable aftereffect of Covid-19 medication) generated healthy business volumes. The team continued to move forward with its business-tweaking initiatives initiated about 3-4 years ago. It continued to infuse energy in its field force and altered its trade practices. These efforts yielded healthy returns: 1) An industry beating performance and 2) Optimised product inventory.

The team also continued to widen its product basket, which were well accepted in the domestic market. As a result, the Company now possesses 7 brands, each of which generate more than ₹50 crore revenue. In keeping with the recent trend of patients preferring to visit hospital OPDs as opposed to individual clinics, the team strengthened its connect with the OPD division of leading corporate hospitals in metros and tier 1 & 2 cities. This helped in growing prescription volumes.

FY22: Key highlights

- Grew business by 29% against a 18% industry growth
- Introduced 5 new products in the domestic market
- Added 500 members to the field forces, majority of them were fresh graduates

APIs

The division manufactures approximately 100 APIs at its FDA approved facilities which are also marketed to key formulators across 60 nations globally including non-regulated markets. It is an important division for the Company as it develops niche APIs for select formulations.

While the numbers represent a flattish performance, the reality is that FY21 was unusual owing to a sudden spike in volumes of Azithromycin owing to Covid requirements . Excluding this exception, FY22 showcased healthy growth in volumes and value.

FY22: Key highlights

During the year under review, considerable development work happened; the products moved in scale from the mg-scale to the gram-scale and even higher. This forward movement in the development cycle generated good revenue. This was heartening as it was a sweet success for the patience and perseverance in developing these products –the development work for some products started in 2016-17 or even earlier.

4) Value creation

Business Model

Our value-creation engine

Alembic's business model is the foundation upon which it seeks to effectively implement and drive a sustainable business strategy. The business model is built on the foundation of patience and perseverance of the team to create growth levers for the future. It encourages and inspires employees and partners to strive for excellence in what they do, keeping ethics, transparency and good governance practices in mind.

Manufactured Capital

Alembic's state-of-the art manufacturing facilities make quality products that improve healthcare in India and across the world.

Manufacturing facilities

The Company has 9 manufacturing facilities of which 3 facilities are awaiting regulatory clearance to commence operations. The manufacturing units which cater to the international business are in Gujarat, India, while the unit that develops and delivers formulations for the domestic market is in Sikkim. APIs are manufactured at the Panelav and Karkhadi units in Gujarat

Panelav, Gujarat

This is the flagship manufacturing facility for Alembic, where the Company manufactures oral solids and APIs. This FDA approved facility delivers products to all regulated and pharmerging markets across the globe. Alembic has invested in separate blocks for developing Oncology injectables and Oncology Oral Solid Dosages (F2). These blocks have been set up and are awaiting regulatory clearance.

Karkhadi, Gujarat

At this location, the Company manufactures dermatology products and certain APIs. The Company has set up blocks for developing general injectables and Ophthalmic products (F3), which are awaiting regulatory clearance.

Jarod, Gujarat

The Company has created a greenfield facility at this location for manufacturing oral solid dosages (F4). The unit is ready for commercial production but is awaiting regulatory clearance.

Sikkim

The Company manufactures formulations specifically for the domestic market.

Sustainable Development goals impacted

FY22: in retrospect

Over the last two years, which marred normal operations, the operations team focused their efforts on enhancing capabilities. The team worked upon commissioning new technologies for its APIs (at the Panelav unit) which promises to improve yields among other benefits. The team, along with its R&D colleagues will initiate filings leveraging this technology. Once approved, these technologies would be put to commercial use.

The pandemic also brought to the fore an important realisation about the shopfloor workforce. A large proportion of the workforce came from other states, which made it difficult for them to come to work during lockdowns. As a mitigation strategy, the Company focused nurturing local talent. It cherry-picked skilled people at the junior levels from within local communities to fill in vacancies. This strategy, the Company believes, will enhance employee loyalty at the junior levels. On the raw material front, it was an extremely volatile ecosystem. While material availability was not a major challenge, the prices for raw materials skyrocketed. Also, logistics cost climbed significantly. The combination of these factors dented profitability margins.

FY23: the strategy

Alembic's F3 unit (Karkhadi, injectables block) received certain observations from the audit team of the USFDA while undergoing audit in FY22. The team will focus all its energies for remediation of the block along with teams from other departments. These changes will also be implemented in all other facilities, which are awaiting inspection by regulatory authorities – it will facilitate faster approval of the facilities.

Financial Capital

Alembic manages its financial capital in an astute, optimum and diligent manner. Maintaining a prudent balance between investing in long-term strategies and deleveraging the financial statements allows the Company to harness opportunities for long-term value creation. O.12 Gross Debt-Equity ratio as on March 31, 2022

FY22: in retrospect

FY22 was a fulfilling year for Alembic performed as good as most other Indian pharma players of its size. But when the performance of FY22 is placed alongside the financials of FY21, there appears to be a drop. This is primarily because FY21 was an exceptional year on many counts. Hence, rather than reflecting it as a drop in performance, the numbers achieved in FY22 reflect a return to normalisation.

The journey through FY22 was a mixed bag of ups and downs in performance. While, the domestic branded vertical registered healthy positive growth, the US piece and the RoW segment were lower than the previous year (FY21 was exceptional for the US vertical).

Cash and Cash Equivalent as on March 31, 2022 (₹ crore)

The US market has its peculiar headwinds and tailwinds. As a result, financial numbers from this market will undergo crests and troughs – a reality which shareholders need to consider while drawing their estimates.

The Company invested ₹482 crore in augmenting capacities and strengthening capabilities – it marks the end to our long capex journey it embarked upon in 2016-17. Having invested ₹2100+ crs in new projects over the last few years in a phased manner, Alembic has been able to maintain a lowdebt equity (Gross) of 0.12 as on March 31, 2022. The Company has successfully serviced its enhanced debt (owing to our capex plans) by sweating its existing assets efficiently. Despite being a challenging year, the Net Cash Flow from Business Operations stood at ₹552 crore.

The Finance team deployed operating liquidity prudently between investing in (capex) and strengthening (deleveraging) our financial position – thereby creating a platform that promises to catapult Alembic into a higher orbit.

On the working capital side, the team has been very agile to ensure that receivables translate into cash at the earliest. Multiple teams persevered to maintain a stringent control inventory of finished goods, especially in the domestic market, which helped in maintaining a comfortable working capital position.

Sustainable Development goals impacted

FY23: the strategy

Alembic's primary focus would be to sweat its assets better, entrench itself deeper in the markets of its choice to maximise revenue from the available opportunities.

- In the domestic market, Alembic is confident of outperforming the industry average.
- The US market could experience a more mature growth owing to prevailing headwinds – the medium-term prospects appear particularly promising banking on at least 15+ new launches.
- The RoW piece should maintain the legacy growth driven by a widening geographic footprint and an expanding product basket.

These estimates are subject to unforeseen events owing to the prevailing geopolitical issues and the possibility of the fourth wave of the pandemic. Gross Debt-equity (X)

Net cash flow from operations (₹ crore)

Q. Why has the ROCE declined?

A. We enjoyed a spirited run in the US market in FY21 for our Sartans portfolio. This was because regulatory issues chocked supplies from competitors. We secured volumes at a good price it shored our topline and profitability. In FY22, we, like many of our peers, faced consistent pricing pressure on our US generics portfolio. This impacted profitability – ROCE dropped from previous year levels.

Key financial ratios are provided in Note no. 21 of Notes to Standalone & Consolidated Financial Statements along with the reasons for major variations, if any.

Intellectual Capital

Alembic continues to strengthen its Intellectual Capital with a focus on innovation, developing a portfolio of highquality and affordable medicines. Over the years, the Company has persevered patiently to building a differentiated product pipeline which delivers value to the customer and the Company.

230 ANDAs filed up to March 31, 2022 125 DMF Filings up to March 31, 2022

140+ Filings in other markets up to March 31, 2022 Alembic is a research-led company that leverages its R&D expertise to develop niche products that allows the Company to establish an entrenched presence in geographies and markets of its choice. The strong focus on R&D is reflected in the fact that the Company has three R&D segments - formulations, API and peptides that cumulatively employ 1,200+ R&D experts possessing skills in cutting-edge technologies and chemistry platforms. The R&D teams stay well-informed about newer product development tools and technologies to gain competitive market advantage. The Company has also created a dedicated technology transfer team to facilitate seamless DMF/ ANDA filings. Alembic's R&D activities are also supported by dedicated teams focused on analytics, documentation and IPR.

Formulation R&D

The Company has three R&D units for developing its formulation pipeline – at Vadodara, Hyderabad and the US.

The Vadodara unit is the mainstay innovation centre, which develops non-oncology molecules. The Hyderabad unit, a more recent addition to the Company's innovation infrastructure develops both oncology and non-oncology molecules. The US unit is focused on developing and filing oral solids and liquid products. It adds complimentary skill sets in soft gelatin based oral solids and oral liquids.

Sustainable Development goals impacted

In the recent past, the Company has invested significantly to augment our R&D capabilities across several high-growth and high-value therapies. These include cardiovascular, oncology, peptides, central nervous system, dermaceuticals and injectables (general and oncology). The robust product pipeline and higher number of filings facilitate the Company to accelerate future growth in represented markets, particularly, in the US (90% of our R&D spends are directed towards the high growth US market).

We have about 50+ products at an advanced stage of development for the US markets. In the product selection, we have adopted a prudent strategy of created a basket of low-risk products and high-risk Para IV filings. The team aims to file about 20+ new filings every year.

For the Rest of the World, the team is developing about 70+ products which are at an advance stage in the development cycle – most are them are tweaks of the US products which are in high demand in these markets – the tweaks will align them to the regulatory compliances in specific markets. The team continues to monitors it R&D grid to realign its product portfolio against numerous filters to ensure that its efforts generate the desired returns. Products that don't fit the criteria are dropped from the grid. This stringent monitoring ensure that the R&D efforts remain streamlined and relevant.

In the last two years, we have been developing capabilities for incorporating process analytical tools in our molecule manufacturing process to make the process more stable – this ensures that consistent product quality and greater reliability on Alembic. While this is a long journey, we have made good progress since we started. In addition, we have also invested in predictive tool which help in understanding the accuracy of our development path, it provides a basis for course correction, if required. Moreover, it helps in providing a data-backed reply to regulatory queries during audits.

Also, over the last two years, the team has been consciously working on reducing the development cost by various initiatives and resource optimisation.

FY22 – our progress

- Filed 23 ANDAs of which 1 is FTF and 7 are Para IV in nature
- Received approval for 23 ANDAs from the US regulatory authorities
- Filed 15+ dossiers in other global markets
- Received approvals for 10+ dossiers from other markets

Injectable R&D

We set up a dedicated injectable R&D centre few years back. This unit epitomises 'patience and perseverance'. The team has worked diligently for more than half a decade to create a robust pipeline of 40+ molecules, majority of which have been developed or are in the final stages of development. We should see commercialisation of this efforts in a few years.

The team has developed critical in-house technologies that are used in developing injectable products. This has helped in considerable saving of time and development costs. While working peptide-based injectables, peptide characterization is critical and mandatory. Here again the team has built 100% in-house capability in doing the characterisation.

Alembic is amongst the few companies in the Indian pharma space with these in-house capabilities.

FY22 – our progress

- Completed the scale up of quite a few complex injectables, which includes products that are a drug-device combination exhibit batches for these products is planned in the current year.

- Received FDA clearance for auto injector medication, a complex and difficult to develop formulation.

API R&D

Alembic has a dedicated API development team focused on developing and filing our DMFs with the USFDA. The API team develops novel polymorphs having advantages in terms of product intellectual property and cost, thereby providing the Company an edge over peers.

FY22 – our progress

Operationalised the kilo lab facility at Panchdevla and received approval from CDSO for the same – this will allow us to transfer technology from the R&D to the plant. Received CDSO approval for the Tinib facility in R&D; niche oncology APIs can be manufactured here.

Completed 8 USFDA filings and 2 dossier in the other geographies – of these five APIs will cater to FTF formulations being developed at our facilities.

Peptide APIs – R&D

Alembic has created this unit a few years ago to develop peptide APIs to be used in developing complex injectables for high-value, high-growth therapies. Over the years, discipline, determination and immense perseverance enabled the team in building expertise in understanding with process, establish alignment with plant operations and with the injectables formulation team. This has helped the team build a robust pipeline of molecules to be used to developing formulations. Alembic in future will be one of the very few companies to be a vertically integrated peptide players.

FY22 – our progress

• Filed with the regulatory authorities for 1 product and elevated 2 more products are in plant validation stage.

Working with speed

We successfully developed Lipozome in about 3-4 years. The Alembic team is ready for exhibit batches of this complex product.

- Filed a patent (non-infringing process) which will give us a good yield for the key product. We worked on establishing and stabilising this process for the last 3 years.
- Onboarded team members from an international destination and from recognised institutes in India – this intellectual capital brings in rich expertise and a powerhouse of understanding in our space of operations.
- Invested in analytical ultracentrifugation which is a critical process before filing any product.
- Created a robust pipeline of about 9-10 products which enables us to achieve two filings every year for the medium term.

FY22: in retrospect

Just when things were getting back on track towards the close of the previous financial year, the year started with the Delta variant of the pandemic which put considerable roadblocks to logistics and instilled fear in the minds of people which thwarted business operations.

The Company set in place similar motley of measures that were instituted during the initial wave of pandemic but were made more stringent. Additionally, transport facilities were made available to people to come to the plant site and back.

The key difference in this hour of anxiety was that the HR team along with other volunteers set multiple vaccinations camps to ensure that the entire team was provided this protection shield. These efforts helped sustain plant operations. The HR also facilitated the flexibility to people to Work from Home in cases where travel became a concern. The HR team continued to maintain a connect with every Alembic employee who tested positive with this health scare to keep track of their progress and to render all help to the person and the family.

The Management created a welfare fund which provided the financial succor to families of employees deceased owing to Covid-19.

As the impact of the pandemic waned, plant operations resumed with speed.

Key initiatives during the year

- Right-sized the organisation in keeping with current and future people requirement.
- Initiated the Gallup Survey at its flagship operating unit (F1); the survey numbers showcase that the team is very engaged; this was particularly heartening.

FY23: the strategy

The single most important agenda is to continue to supply talent to facilities that are about to commence commercial operations. Other priorities include 1) The team wants to formalise employee welfare measures through a trust or fund, and 2) Continue to impart training to its team members as and when required.

Team size

Patience & Perseverance

In 2013, Alembic created the Alembic Talent Pool. This is an initiative to create a talent pipeline to be deployed as and when the Company requires people resources. Under this initiative, fresh graduates are recruited and trained by experienced members from within the Alembic team. The training includes a mix of classroom and shopfloor sessions. The HR team continues to add members to the talent pool every year. This approach highlights the Company's perseverance towards its vision. Before embarking on its brick-and-mortar capex plan, the Company created this pool which would be ready to take on the operations of the additional facilities when commissioned.

Sustainable Development goals impacted

For uplifting the underprivileged, consistency is far more critical than intensity. What is needed is continuous effort, not explosive effort. This is because, explosive efforts are more about leaving a good story; persistent efforts keep you progressing. At Alembic, patience and perseverance drive us to better what we have done in the past.

Our interventions

1) Health

Swasthya Setu: A 360° health programme, wherein a mobile health van with medical practitioners visits 25 villages and attends 45,000 villagers in a month. For further treatment or surgeries patients are referred to a super-specialty hospital and are provided with free diagnostics, consultation, medicines, stay, meals and pick-up drop facilities.

Infrastructure: The team has constructed a check dam near Panelav with a storage capacity of four crore liters of water which will be used for irrigation, ground water recharge and meet household requirements.

Groundwater Recharge Wells:

Two such wells were constructed around Jarod for capturing rainwater during the monsoon which will be effective in raising the ground water levels in the area.

Toilets: Around 70 toilets were constructed in Jarod region as part of the sanitation drive under which 2,300+ toilets have been constructed in the last five years around our manufacturing facilities.

5. Community Infrastructure

Alembic constructed five anganwadis – two in Panelav, one in Jarod and two in Karakhadi which provides nutrition and preschool education to community children of these villages.

Assistance in managing the pandemic

Meaningful and timely initiatives were undertaken to help overcome the lethal wave of Covid. They included

- 280 Community women earned livelihood by making 1,00,000+ PPE kits, 36,000+ face masks, 2,000 blood pressure cuffs, 2,000 stethoscope covers and 1,000 face shields which were given to the Corona warriors.

Sustainable Development goals impacted

Energy conservation: At Alembic, energy management and optimisation are a continuous journey. This journey starts with disciplined monitoring of energy consumption at the Company's sites. This forms the platform for undertaking measures for minimising wastages and optimising consumption. Every year, the operations team identifies areas for reducing energy and implements initiatives towards this end. In FY22, the team continued with this efforts and achieved considerable success in its endeavours.

Water management: Alembic uses groundwater at its operating units for it manufacturing processes. The Company processes all liquid waste and recycles treated water for use in gardening and in toilets. Moreover, the Company has made sizeable investments towards recharging the ground water table. Currently, the Company recharges more water into the underground water table than what it consumes - positioning it as one of the very few companies in the pharma space to become a groundwater positive company.

Plastic waste management:

Alembic realises that it is putting plastic in the marketplace through its products (packaging). As an Earth-respecting organisation, the Company has appointed an agency to collect an equivalent amount of plastic from the marketplace and dispose it responsibly. It needs to certify the same.

In addition, the Company undertook a '100 Day Campaign' against plastic. It appointed an agency to collect plastic from the dumps in nearby villages for 100 days and dispose it responsibly with the objective of making the villages plastic free.

In a rapidly changing business environment with dynamic customer requirements, business risks are constantly evolving. As a result, there is significant variation in the emerging risks landscape across businesses. We, at Alembic, continuously monitor the internal and external environment to identify potential, emerging risks and their impact on our business.

Pipeline risk

Lack of a robust pipeline of relevant products could impact the Company's growth momentum going forward.

Mitigation measure

Alembic's R&D team continues to work on the development of 125+ products. These are periodically analysed for their relevance in terms of the evolving ecosystem and the growing competitive intensity. This ensures that the development of relevant products sustains a healthy pace.

Asset risk

A significant part of the asset base remains under-utilized. This could impact profitability.

Mitigation measure

The new facilities/blocks are awaiting approvals from global regulatory authorities. This could happen in the next 9-12 months. Till then, the Company is prudently utilising these assets for developing exhibit batches for initiating filings in global markets.

Quality risk

Quality issues in the product or packaging could impact product supplies to its customers.

Mitigation measure

Alembic's has sustained its investments in quality enhancements across plants to comply with international standards. This is reflected in the Company's ability to capitalise on the Sartans opportunity in the US market (owing to superior product quality). The Company sustains its quality commitment through continuous training of its people on emerging technologies and improved processes.

Compliance risk

Operating facilities will manufacture products only if they continue to remain compliant with regulatory standards.

Mitigation measure

Alembic has established a strong team of experts with domain expertise in all related areas. This expertise is nurtured through periodic and effective training that continues to be tested with frequent mock audits. This has resulted in 24x7 audit preparedness of the team. Moreover, the Company has institutionalised a robust quality control system across the organisation to ensure complete compliance. This system is checked periodically for ensuring that it remains relevant to the evolving regulatory ecosystem.

Data security risk

Loss of data owing to security breach could impact business operations and the Company's reputation.

Mitigation measure

Alembic has made and continues to commit considerable investment to maintain a robust and relevant IT framework and solutions. It has a strong IT team that proactively monitors and analyses risks and threats to its IT systems and protects it against any possible breach.

People risk

Expanding operations need skilled people to manage the operations seamlessly.

Mitigation measure

The Alembic Talent Pool comprising freshers, who are trained in the Company's systems and processes, are ready to fill in vacancies as and when they appear. Also, the Company prefers internal promotions to fill in middle and senior levels gaps in the system – it creates a sense of motivation for other team members to up their performance.

Competitive intensity

Growing competition in the global and domestic pharma space would impede progress.

Mitigation measure

Alembic has, over the years, persevered to establish a strong presence in key markets of its preference. In addition to enjoying a strong presence in India and the US, the Company continues to expand its global presence by entering new geographies – adding new levers to its growth engine.

Currency risk

The Company's revenue accrues in multiple global currencies. Negative fluctuations could impact profitability adversely.

Mitigation measure

We have established robust currency hedging strategy and execution capabilities to safeguard ourselves. We ideally like to hedge 35-40% of our net exposure and will continue to sell more dollar at every fall.

Environment, Health , Safety & Sustainability

Taking care of people and the environment in essence is taking care of the business - for the longterm.

Mitigation measure

Alembic continues to remain agile and alive to sustain good health of its people and the environment.

From an environment perspective, Alembic endeavours to reduce the load of its operations on the Earth through multiple small yet meaningful initiatives. In FY22, the Company reduced its overall energy consumption by 12%, its CO<sub>2</sub> emission by about 5%, water consumption by about 5%, water consumption by about 21% and achieved waste reduction of about 29%.

From a people standpoint, Alembic continues to train its people on safety periodically every year. This training comprises classroom sessions and mock drills. It also uses earlier incidents/accidents as a tool to train people to avoid their recurrence. This has helped in reducing the accidents and incident trends over the earlier years.

Intellectual property

Infringing patents, product or process, could have serious implications on the Company's business and reputation.

Mitigation measure

The Company has created a vigilance mechanism via an IPR department to check for possible infringement of intellectual property rights of patent holders/ innovators for every product being developed by the R&D team. Their continued monitoring of every product development project from an infringement prism ensures that the Company does not face any legal tussle owing to regulatory issues.

Internal control systems and their adequacy

At Alembic, we maintain a system of well-established policies and procedures for internal control of operations and activities. We constantly strive to integrate the entire organisation, strategic support functions, such as finance, human resources, and regulatory affairs into core operations, such as research, manufacturing, and the supply chain. The internal audit function is further strengthened in conjunction with the statutory auditors to monitor statutory and operational matters. Adherence to statutory compliance is a key focus area for the entire leadership team of the Company.

We appointed Sharp & Tannan Associates, as internal auditors to audit the adequacy and effectiveness of all internal control systems and propose improvements. Significant issues are brought to the attention of the Audit Committee for periodic review. The enterprise-wide risk evaluation and validation process are carried out by the Risk Management Committee and the Board of Directors.

To set the pace for effective and efficient internal control and documentation, we have institutionalised a document management system for core and strategic operations. Additionally, we obtained ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 certifications and adhere to the standard operating procedures applicable to our manufacturing and operating activities.

Information Other than the Standalone Financial Statements and Auditors' Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the preparation of the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Board's Report including Annexures to Board's Report and Management Discussion and Analysis but does not include the standalone financial statements and our auditors' report thereon.

Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance, total comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

 Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude the appropriateness of on management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safequards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matters or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. General information

Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited is in the business of development, manufacturing, and marketing of Pharmaceuticals products i.e. Formulations and Active Pharmaceutical Ingredients. The Company is the public limited Company domiciled in India and is incorporated under the provision of the Companies Act applicable in India. Its shares are listed on the two recognised Stock Exchanges in India. The registered office of the Company is located at Alembic Road, Vadodara – 390 003, India.

The financial statements are approved by the company's board of directors on 13th September, 2022.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

2.01 Statement of compliance

These financial statements are separate financial statements of the Company (also called standalone financial statements). The Company has prepared financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2022 in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (as amended) together with the comparative period data as at and for the year ended March 31, 2021.

2.02 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) as prescribed under Section 133 of the Act to be read with Rule 3 of the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Amendment Rules, 2016. The Company's Financial Statements for the year ended 31st March, 2022 comprises of the Balance Sheet, Statement of Profit and Loss, Cash Flow Statement, Statement of Changes in Equity and the Notes to Financial Statements.

The Company has consistently applied accounting policies to all periods presented in these financial statements.

2.03 Basis of Measurement

The financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost convention on the accrual basis, except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair value, viz derivatives, employee benefit plan assets.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as set out in the Schedule III (Division II) to the Companies Act, 2013.

Functional and Presentation Currency

The financial statements are presented in Indian rupees, which is the functional currency of the Company.

Operating cycle

Based on the nature of products / activities of the Company and the normal time between acquisition of assets and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents, the Company has determined its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of classification of its assets and liabilities as current and non-current.

Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date under current market conditions. The Company categorizes assets and liabilities measured at fair value into one of three levels depending on the ability to observe inputs employed in their measurement which are described as follows:

- (a) Level 1 inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- (b) Level 2 inputs are inputs that are observable, either directly or indirectly, other than quoted prices included within level 1, for the asset or liability.
- (c) Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability reflecting significant modifications to observable related market

data or Company's assumptions about pricing by market participants.

For assets and liabilities that are recognised in the financial statements on a recurring basis, the Company determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorisation (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

2.04 Significant Accounting Judgments, Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of financial statements requires the management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Any change in these estimates and assumptions will generally be reflected in the financial statements in current period or prospectively, unless they are required to be treated retrospectively under relevant accounting standards.

In particular, information about significant areas of estimates and judgments in applying accounting policies that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements includes financial instruments, useful lives of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets, valuation of inventories, measurement of defined benefit obligations and actuarial assumptions, provisions and other accruals, sales returns, chargebacks, allowances and discounts, recoverability/ recognition of tax assets/liabilities, assessment of functional currency, contingencies and fair valuation of investments.

2.05 Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE) & Investment Property

Property, Plant and Equipment is stated at cost, net

of accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. Property that is held for long-term rental yields or for capital appreciation or both and that is not occupied by the company is classified as investment property, measured at cost. Cost comprises of the purchase price net of eligible input tax credit, and any attributable cost of bringing the assets to its working condition for its intended use, including the cost of replacing parts and borrowing costs for longterm construction projects if the recognition criteria are met.

The cost and related accumulated depreciation are eliminated from the financial statements upon sale or retirement of the asset and the resultant gains or losses are recognized in the statement of profit and loss. Assets to be disposed off are reported at the lower of the carrying value or the net realisable value less cost to sell. Freehold land is carried at historical cost and not depreciated.

The company has adopted, "Cost Model" for accounting of its Property Plant and Equipment and Investment Property.

2.06 Capital Work-in-Progress

Projects under construction wherein assets are not ready for use in the manner as intended by the management are shown as Capital Work-In-Progress. It includes expenditure directly attributable for setting up of plants yet to commence commercial operation.

Directly attributable expenditure comprises of revenue expenses incurred in connection with project implementation during the period upto ready for use in the manner as intended by the management and are treated as part of the project costs and capitalized. Such expenses are capitalized only if the project to which they relate, involve substantial expansion of capacity or upgradation.

2.07 Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are stated at cost less provisions for amortisation and impairments. Software

licenses fees are charged to statement of profit and loss when incurred. Intangible assets are de-recognised either on their disposal or where no future economic benefits are expected from their use.

2.08 Intangible Assets under development

Intangible assets consisting of development expenditure of certain products, are evaluated for potential impairment on an annual basis or when there are indications that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

2.09 Impairment of Assets

Non- Financial Assets

At each balance sheet date, the Company reviews the carrying values of its property, plant and equipment and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that the carrying value of those assets may not be recoverable through continuing use. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is reviewed in order to determine the extent of impairment loss (if any). Where the asset does not generate cash flows that are independent from other assets, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pretax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted. An impairment loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss as and when the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying value of the asset (or cash generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount so that the increased carrying value does not exceed the carrying value that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised in the statement of profit and loss immediately.

Financial Assets

At each balance sheet date, the Company assesses whether a financial asset is to be impaired. Ind AS 109 requires the Company to apply expected credit loss model for recognition and measurement of impairment loss. In determining the allowances for doubtful trade receivables, the Company has used a practical expedient by computing the expected credit loss allowance for trade receivables based on a provision matrix. The provision matrix takes into account historical credit loss experience and is adjusted for forward looking information. The impairment loss is based on the ageing of the receivables that are due and allowance rates used in the provision matrix. For all other financial assets, expected credit losses are measured at an amount equal to the 12-months expected credit losses or at an amount equal to the life time expected credit losses if the credit risk on the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition.

2.10 Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs attributable to the acquisition and/or construction of an qualifying asset, i.e., that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for use in the manner as intended by management, are capitalised as part of the cost of the asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.11 Inventories

Inventories consist of Raw Materials, Stores and Spares, Packing Materials, Work-in-Progress, Goods in Transit and Finished Goods and are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost includes expenditures incurred in acquiring the inventories, production or conversion costs and other costs incurred in bringing them to their existing location and condition. Cost of purchase is determined on a moving average basis. In the case of Finished Goods and Work-in-Progress, cost includes an appropriate share of overheads based on normal operating capacity.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and selling expenses.

2.12 Financial Instruments

The Company recognises financial assets and financial liabilities when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

a. Financial Assets

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

The Company recognizes financial assets when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All financial assets are recognized at fair value on initial recognition, except for trade receivables which are initially measured at transaction price. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets, that are not at fair value through profit or loss, are added to the fair value on initial recognition. Regular way trade of financial assets are accounted for at trade date.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

For the purpose of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

- Financial assets at amortised cost:

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost, if it is held within a business model whose objective is to hold the asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. After initial measurement, debt instruments are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method, less impairment, if any.

- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

A financial asset is subsequently measured at fair value through other comprehensive income if it is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both collecting contractual cash flows and selling financial assets and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

The Company has made an irrevocable election for its investments which are classified as equity instruments to present the subsequent changes in fair value in other comprehensive income based on its business model.

-Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets which are not classified in any of the above categories are subsequently fair valued through profit or loss.

(iii) De-recognition:

The company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or it transfers the financial asset and the transfer qualifies for de-recognition under Ind AS 109.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and short-term deposits, as defined above.

for the year ended 31st March, 2022

Trade receivables

Trade receivables are carried at original invoice amount less any expected credit loss. Provisions are made where there is evidence of a risk of non-payment, taking into account ageing, previous experience and general economic conditions. When a trade receivable is determined to be uncollectable it is written off, firstly against any provision available and then to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

- Investments in subsidiaries and associates

The Company has elected to recognise its investments in subsidiaries and associates at cost in the separate financial statements in accordance with the option available in Ind AS 27, 'Separate Financial Statements'.

b. Financial Liabilities

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

The Company's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans and borrowings including bank overdrafts, financial guarantee contracts and derivative financial instruments.

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, at fair value through profit and loss or as those measured at amortised cost.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

- Financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss

Financial liabilities at fair value through profit and loss include financial liabilities held for trading. The Company has not designated any financial liabilities upon initial recognition at fair value through profit and loss.

-Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost

After initial recognition, interest bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method except for those designated in an effective hedging relationship.

(iii) De-recognition

A financial liability (or a part of a financial liability) is derecognized from the company's balance sheet when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged or cancelled or expires.

c. Derivative Financial Instruments

The company holds derivative financial instruments such as foreign exchange forward and option contracts to mitigate the risk of changes in exchange rates on foreign currency exposures. The counter party for these contracts is generally a bank and these are not designated as hedges under Ind AS 109, Financial Instruments.

Any derivative that is either not designated a hedge, or is so designated but is ineffective as per Ind AS 109, is categorized as a financial asset or financial liability, at fair value through profit or loss. Derivatives not designated as hedges are recognized initially at fair value and attributable transaction costs are recognized in the statement of profit and loss when incurred. Subsequent to initial recognition, these derivatives are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Assets/liabilities in this category are presented as current assets/ current liabilities if they are either held for trading or are expected to be realized within 12 months after the balance sheet date.

2.13 Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised on satisfaction of performance obligation, when control of the goods is passed to customer, at an amount that reflect the consideration the company expects to receive. The point at which control passes is determined based on terms of agreement with customer or as per general industry/market practice.

Estimated future returns are calculated based on specific methodology and assumptions. Income dependent on the achievement of milestone is recognised when the related event occurs and it is highly probable that significant reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur. Sales-based royalties on a licence of intellectual property are recognised on confirmation of actual sales.

GST and other taxes on sales are excluded from revenue.

Income from operations includes Export benefits available under prevalent schemes are recognised to the extent considered receivable.

B Short Term Employee Benefits

2.16 Depreciation / Amortisation

Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis as per the specified life of the assets as provided in schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013

Class of Assets- Tangible	Range of useful life
Building	05 - 60 Years
Plant & Equipment	03 - 22 Years
Furniture & Fixtures	10 Years
Vehicles	08 - 10 Years
Office Equipment	05 Years
Class of Assets- Intangible	Range of useful life
Other Intangible Asset	02 - 05 Years

The management, based on internal technical evaluation, believes that the useful lives as given above best represent the period over which the assets are expected to be used.

The useful lives for certain assets is different from the useful lives as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013, and the same is considered in the above range of useful life. Leasehold Land is amortized over the period of lease.

Depreciation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end.

Depreciation on PPE added during the year is provided on pro rata basis from the month of addition. Depreciation on sale / disposal of PPE is provided pro-rata up to the preceding month of disposal/discarding.

2.17 Leases:

As lessee Initial measurement

Lease Liability: At the commencement date, a Company measure the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at that date. The lease payments shall be discounted using incremental borrowing rate.

Right-of-use assets: initially recognised at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or prior to the commencement date of the lease plus any initial direct costs less any lease incentives.

Subsequent measurement

Lease Liability: Company measure the lease liability by (a) increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability; (b) reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made; and (c) remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modifications.

Right-of-use assets: subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Right-of-use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight line basis over the shorter of the lease term and useful life of the under lying asset.

Impairment

Right of use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. For the purpose of impairment testing, the recoverable amount (i.e. the higher of the fair value less cost to sell and the valuein-use) is determined on an individual asset basis unless the asset does not generate cash flows that are largely independent of those from other assets. In such cases, the recoverable amount is determined for the Cash Generating Unit (CGU) to which the asset belongs.

Short term Lease

Short term lease is that, at the commencement date, has a lease term of 12 months or less. A lease that contains a purchase option is not a short-term lease. If the company elected to apply short term lease, the lessee shall recognise the lease payments associated with those leases as an expense on either a straight-line basis over the lease term or another systematic basis. The lessee shall apply another systematic basis if that basis is more representative of the pattern of the lessee's benefit.

As a lessor

Leases for which the company is a lessor is classified as a finance or operating lease. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Lease income is recognised in the statement of profit and loss on straight line basis over the lease term.

2.18 Foreign Exchange Transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are initially recorded by the Company at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the transaction.

Monetary assets and monetary liabilities denominated in foreign currencies remaining unsettled at the end of the year are converted at the exchange rate prevailing on the reporting date. Differences arising on settlement or conversion of monetary items are recognised in statement of profit and loss.

Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are recorded using the exchange rates at the date of the transaction. In respect of forward cover contracts, the mark to market loss / gain as at the reporting date is charged to Statement of Profit and Loss. In respect of options contracts to mitigate the probable foreign exchange fluctuation risk, the options contracts are fair valued and the resultant variation as at the reporting date is charged to Statement of Profit and Loss.

b. Deferred tax

Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized. The benefit of credit against the payment made towards Minimum Alternate Tax for the earlier years is available in accordance with the provisions of the section 115J (AA) of Income Tax Act 1961 over the period of subsequent 15 assessment year and it is recognised to the extent of deferred tax liability in view of the certainty involved of its realisation against reversal of deferred tax liability.

2.20 Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

a. Provisions

The expense relating to a provision is recognised in the statement of profit and loss or balance sheet as the case may be.

b. Contingent Liabilities

Contingent liability is disclosed for (i) Possible obligations which will be confirmed only by the future events not wholly within the control of the company or (ii) Present obligations arising from past events where it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation or a reliable estimate of the amount of the obligation cannot be made.

c. Contingent Assets

Contingent Assets are not recognised in the financial statements. Contingent Assets if any, are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

2.21 Earnings per share

Diluted earnings per equity share is computed by dividing the net profit attributable to the equity holders of the company by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per equity share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilutive potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the equity shares been actually issued at fair value (i.e. the average market value of the outstanding equity shares). Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

The number of equity shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits

A description of methods used for sensitivity analysis and its limitations:

Sensitivity analysis is performed by varying single parameter while keeping all the other parameters unchanged. Sensitivity analysis fails to focus on the interrelationship between underlying parameters. Hence, the results may vary if two or more variables are changed simultaneously. The method used does not indicate anything about the likelihood of change in any parameter and the extent of the change, if any.

Major risk to the plan

- A. Actuarial Risk: It is the risk that benefits will cost more than expected. This can arise due to one of the following reasons: Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Salary hikes that are higher than the assumed salary escalation will result into an increase in Obligation at a rate that is higher than expected. Variability in mortality rates: If actual mortality rates are higher than assumed mortality rate assumption then the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. Since there is no condition of vesting on the death benefit, the acceleration of cash flow will lead to an actuarial loss or gain depending on the relative values of the assumed salary growth and discount rate. Variability in withdrawal rates: If actual withdrawal rate assumption then the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. The impact of this will depend on whether the benefits are vested as at the resignation date.
- B. Investment Risk: For funded plans that rely on insurers for managing the assets, the value of assets certified by the insurer may not be the fair value of instruments backing the liability. In such cases, the present value of the assets is independent of the future discount rate. This can result in wide fluctuations in the net liability or the funded status if there are significant changes in the discount rate during the inter-valuation period.
- C. Liquidity Risk: Employees with high salaries and long durations or those higher in hierarchy, accumulate significant level of benefits. If some of such employees resign/retire from the company there can be strain on the cash flows.
- D. Market Risk: Market risk is a collective term for risks that are related to the changes and fluctuations of the financial markets. One actuarial assumption that has a material effect is the discount rate. The discount rate reflects the time value of money. An increase in discount rate leads to decrease in Defined Benefit Obligation of the plan benefits & vice versa. This assumption depends on the yields on the corporate/government bonds and hence the valuation of liability is exposed to fluctuations in the yields as at the valuation date.
- E. Legislative Risk: Legislative risk is the risk of increase in the plan liabilities or reduction in the plan assets due to change in the legislation/regulation. The government may amend the Payment of Gratuity Act thus requiring the companies to pay higher benefits to the employees. This will directly affect the present value of the Defined Benefit Obligation and the same will have to be recognized immediately in the year when any such amendment is effective.

6 Provident Fund

The Company is liable for any shortfall, as per terms of the Provident Fund Trust deed, in the fund assets based on the Government specified rate of return. Such shortfall, if any, is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as an expense in the year of incurring the same, no such shortfall during the year & in previous year. Contribution to Provident fund trust and Employee Provident Fund Organization ₹26.77 Crores (PY ₹22.26 Crores).

by the company are appropriate.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

2. Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Holding Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation and presentation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance, consolidated total comprehensive income, consolidated changes in equity and consolidated cash flows of the Group including its associate in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) specified under section 133 of the Act.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and its associate are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Group and its associate and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; the selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Holding Company, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and its associate are responsible for assessing the ability of the Group and its associate to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and its associate are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and its associate.

3. Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- ► Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- ► Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Group and its associate incorporated in India have adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its associate to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associate to cease to continue as a going concern.

- ► Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associate to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. For the other entities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding company regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current year and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

4. Other Matters

(Referred to in paragraph 1(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report to the Members of Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited the consolidated financial statements of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated financial statements under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Act.

We have audited the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements of Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited ("the Holding Company" or "the Company") and its associate which are companies incorporated in India as of March 31, 2022 in conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its associate which are companies incorporated in India is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI"). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Act.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements of Holding Company and its associate, which are companies incorporated in India based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the "Guidance Note") and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under section 143(10) of the Companies Act to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the ICAI. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system with reference to consolidated financial statements and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system with reference to consolidated financial statements.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated financial statements

A Company's internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of consolidated financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A Company's internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls with reference to consolidated financial statements

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Holding Company and its associate has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system with reference to consolidated financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2022, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

A description of methods used for sensitivity analysis and its limitations:

Sensitivity analysis is performed by varying single parameter while keeping all the other parameters unchanged. Sensitivity analysis fails to focus on the interrelationship between underlying parameters. Hence, the results may vary if two or more variables are changed simultaneously. The method used does not indicate anything about the likelihood of change in any parameter and the extent of the change, if any.

Major risk to the plan

- A. Actuarial Risk: It is the risk that benefits will cost more than expected. This can arise due to one of the following reasons: Adverse Salary Growth Experience: Salary hikes that are higher than the assumed salary escalation will result into an increase in Obligation at a rate that is higher than expected. Variability in mortality rates: If actual mortality rates are higher than assumed mortality rate assumption then the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. Since there is no condition of vesting on the death benefit, the acceleration of cash flow will lead to an actuarial loss or gain depending on the relative values of the assumed salary growth and discount rate. Variability in withdrawal rates: If actual withdrawal rates are higher than assumed withdrawal rate assumption then the Gratuity Benefits will be paid earlier than expected. The impact of this will depend on whether the benefits are vested as at the resignation date.
- B. Investment Risk: For funded plans that rely on insurers for managing the assets, the value of assets certified by the insurer may not be the fair value of instruments backing the liability. In such cases, the present value of the assets is independent of the future discount rate. This can result in wide fluctuations in the net liability or the funded status if there are significant changes in the discount rate during the inter-valuation period.
- C. Liquidity Risk: Employees with high salaries and long durations or those higher in hierarchy, accumulate significant level of benefits. If some of such employees resign/retire from the company there can be strain on the cash flows.
- D. Market Risk: Market risk is a collective term for risks that are related to the changes and fluctuations of the financial markets. One actuarial assumption that has a material effect is the discount rate. The discount rate reflects the time value of money. An increase in discount rate leads to decrease in Defined Benefit Obligation of the plan benefits & vice versa. This assumption depends on the yields on the corporate/government bonds and hence the valuation of liability is exposed to fluctuations in the yields as at the valuation date.
- E. Legislative Risk: Legislative risk is the risk of increase in the plan liabilities or reduction in the plan assets due to change in the legislation/regulation. The government may amend the Payment of Gratuity Act thus requiring the companies to pay higher benefits to the employees. This will directly affect the present value of the Defined Benefit Obligation and the same will have to be recognized immediately in the year when any such amendment is effective.

5. Provident Fund

The group is liable for any shortfall, in terms of the Provident Fund Trust deed, in the fund assets based on the Government specified rate of return in case of Employee Benefits Plan. Such shortfall, if any, is recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss as an expense in the year of incurring the same, no such shortfall during the year and in previous year. Contribution to Provident fund trust and Employee Provident Fund Organization ₹26.77 Crores (P.Y. ₹22.26 Crores).
